

The Day Ben Turned into Superboy

Written by Galie Ng (6F 17)

One day, my friend Ben and I were chatting and walking in the park when we suddenly heard strange noises and an old lady screaming nearby. We wondered what had happened so we rushed towards the sounds to see what was happening.

When we arrived, what we saw next made my stomach sank. We were terrified and shocked to see our neighbour, Mrs. Chan, in trouble. A creepy robber who was wearing a mask, a cap and had weird scars on his right arm was threatening Mrs. Chan. Mrs. Chan was wearing a pearl necklace and carrying a handbag. The robber was using a knife to point at Mrs. Chan's face. She was desperately screaming her lungs out while the robber tried to snatch her pearl necklace and handbag. He shouted, "If you don't give me your stuff, I will kill you!"

We were so frightened and nervous for Mrs. Chan. I tried to turn to Ben and say something to him, but he disappeared. I yelled, "Ben! Where are you?" All of a sudden, Ben came from behind the bush and transformed into Superboy! He was muscular and had a tall, strongly-built body. I was so surprised that my jaw dropped. The people around us were also taking their phones out to record the scene. Ben calmly said, "Don't worry, I will take care of it."

Ben ran over next to Mrs. Chan and the robber and punched the robber in his face. The robber instantly fell to the ground and blacked out.

I went over to calm Mrs. Chan down. After that, we called the police and they captured the robber and he was sent to jail. Mrs. Chan praised us for being brave and thanked us for saving her life. Ben apologised for hiding his "Superboy secret" from me and we continued our day normally.

We learnt that we should always help others in need and lend out a helping hand when we see someone in trouble.
